Wheeling Heritage's Handmade Holiday Market Relocated to Wheeling Artisan Center

WHEELING, W.Va. – May 5, 2022 – Wheeling Heritage will host Handmade Holiday Spring Market on Saturday, May 7 on the third floor of the Wheeling Artisan Center. The event will run from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and will feature more than 30 juried artists selling their work. Admission is free.

The market was originally planned as an outdoor event, but was relocated to the Wheeling Artisan Center due to inclement weather predicted for Saturday afternoon.

Handmade Holiday is inspired by the independent craft fair movement throughout the country. The event strives to establish a marketplace of unique and creative handmade goods that supports local artists, while increasing awareness about handmade, locally produced craft goods and processes.

“At our December Handmade Holiday, we received positive feedback from both our vendors and attendees who were interested in a Spring market,” said Alex Panas, Communications and Development Manager for Wheeling Heritage. “That’s why we decided to host a Spring market just in time for Mother’s Day. We hope folks enjoy this new opportunity to find high-quality, handmade items made by local artists.”

In addition to handmade products, Wheeling Heritage has arranged food, music, and yoga to enhance the event. Jason Treuman will perform live acoustic music from noon to 2 p.m., and local food vendors Midge’s Kitchen, GypsyLace Café and So Nuts 4 Donuts will be on site selling food and snacks. Wheeling Heritage has also partnered with local yoga instructor Donn McCombs who will lead a Mommy and Me Yoga Flow at 10 a.m. for $12 per adult.

“We really want our Spring market to feel like a Mother’s Day destination,” said Panas. “We hope to see attendees enjoying the whole experience of the market and venturing out to explore what the nearby businesses have to offer, too.”

Attendees who make purchases from at least five vendors will be entered into a raffle to receive a $50 gift card to the Wheeling Artisan Center Shop.

The artists participating in the event include:

- Hawke Design Shop (woven wall hangings and wood signs)
- Bandyanas (dog accessories)
